Louada Raschke

Louada Raschke is an ordained minister, worship leader, author, radio host, TV evangelist & podcaster. She grew up in a dysfunctional family riddled with alcoholism, rampant divorce, abuse, depression, strife, and violence. But God saved her and baptized her in the Holy Spirit. He called her into ministry when she was only 12, telling her she would preach, teach and minister in music all over the world. Now, through radio, television, social media and in person, she ministers the powerful, life changing gospel of Jesus Christ. Her mission is to win the lost, set the captives free from addictions, destructive patterns of thinking and lifestyles, to pray for the sick and equip the church to do the same. Louada is an intense, fervent worshipper of God and loves leading others into His presence.

Scott & Shannon Windrum

Scott and Shannon Windrum are WindSong Ministries. Scott served as a local church pastor for twenty years and then began his ministry to the body of Christ in 2002. He is a friend to pastors and church leaders, ministering through preaching, teaching and the prophetic word. While playing guitar he also enjoys singing words of edification, exhortation and comfort to God's people. His wife, Shannon, shares the importance of an intimate relationship with Jesus Christ and ministers both physical and emotional healing through the power of the Holy Spirit. Come join us and experience times of refreshing that come from the presence of the Lord.
